AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

BERNA MARTIN, FRANK BALTHIS AND WM. TAYLOR NEW ROSTRUM OFFICERS

Thursday afternoon a very important meeting of the Rostrum, which is the name of the school's debating society, took place in Room 1. The first thing of interest to be carried out was the election of officers for the coming semester, the present term having come to a close this week. After several extended campaign speeches had been given by the ardent supporters of the three candidates, for President, Berna Martin was elected by a very close margin. The president-elect then made a short speech of gratification, after which he took his place in the chair. The nominations were then opened for vice-president, and as Frank Balthis was the only candidate for the office, he was unanimously elected. However, the election of Secretary-Treasurer was not decided in such a short time, as the two leading contestants, William Taylor and David Johnston appeared to be evenly matched in the number of supporters that each one had. But after a very close count it was finally decided that the former won out by the small margin of four votes.

The remainder of the meeting was spent in regular business routine. Acting upon the motion of James McClusky the President appointed two committees, the social and the constitution committee. The members of the former are Frank Balthis, chairman; James McClusky and Grace Carson. Those appointed on the constitution committee are David Johnston, chairman, James McClusky and Guy Bennett. The members of this latter committee were requested to form a constitution for the new division of the Rostrum, which will consist only of Freshmen and Sophomores. At the close of the meeting all those present were requested to sign their names on the club registration. The next meeting will take place next Wednesday afternoon in Room 1.

MEN OF GLEN EYRIE HOSTS

Thursday evening marked another happy day on the calendar of Glen Eyrie Chapter, O. E. S. This was the annual banquet by means of which the men of the chapter are accustomed to compliment the ladies. These events are always very enjoyable, but it was the unanimous conclusion that the men surpassed themselves at last night's affair. Following a short business session, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cornwell were initiated into the mysteries of the Eastern Star, and the company was then invited to the banquet room, where long tables were aglow with myriads of roses, and where a very bountiful and appetizing banquet was nicely served. When all had been satisfied, E. U. Emery acted as toastmaster. The new initiates were called upon as well as the visitors, Mr. and Mrs. McDermitt of Gardena and Mrs. Wight. The committee for the evening, consisting of Warren Q. Roberts, Chairman, C. O. Pulliam, Mr. Emery and A. M. Beamon, as well as Worthy Patron Grumblering, were asked to speak. Oratory and happy repartee passed the hours only too quickly and the event long anticipated by the ladies of Glen Eyrie was an affair of the past.

BRITISH AMBULANCE SOCIETY

At the regular weekly meeting last Monday plans were fully completed for the tea and garden party to be given next Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6, at the residence of Mrs. George Mitchell, North Glendale. The affair promises to be a most enjoyable one. A varied and interesting program has been arranged. Prof. Lowinsky, accompanied by Mrs. Lowinsky, will give violin selections. Mr. Edward Malley will sing some Irish songs and Mr. Henry, Scotch ballads. Fancy dancing and recitations are promised. Tea, ice cream, fruit punch and candy will be served, and for the children there will be croquet, a fish pond and haystacks to play in. Guests coming by car to La Ramada will find autos waiting to convey them to the party. Four cars will be met. Those leaving Brand and Broadway at 2:49, 3:09, 3:29 and 3:49. Every one is cordially invited to come to the party and have a very jolly afternoon.

DEATH OF MRS. ARMBRUSTER

Mrs. Margaret Armbruster passed away at her residence, 121 Cedar St. at noon, Thursday after a brief illness. Funeral services will be held at her late residence Saturday at 3 p. m., Rev. W. E. Edmonds officiating. Burial will be at Marshalltown, Iowa. John G. Peart is the funeral director in charge.

LLOYD-GEORGE PREDICTS VICTORY

SAYS AMERICA'S ENTRANCE IN WAR MORE THAN OFFSETS LOSS OF SHIPS BY GERMAN PIRACY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, April 27.—A German destroyer squadron shelled Ramsgate last night, killing two civilians and damaging 23 houses. British patrol boats drove off the destroyers.

In a speech in the House of Commons this morning Lloyd-George said, "Victory for the Allies is becoming increasingly assured." He said no guns had been lost since June, 1915, while 400 German guns had been captured, and prisoners had been taken in the proportion of ten Germans to one Englishman. He said, "We have lost many ships, but German piracy has brought us America, so we are satisfied with the balance."

OPPONENTS OF CONSCRIPTION WEAKEN

CONSIDERATION OF SELECTIVE DRAFT MAY REQUIRE NIGHT SESSION OF CONGRESS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 27.—A night session of Congress is possible. Sixteen senators announced that they will speak on conscription. Senator Jones of Washington declared that to convince the enemy of the futility of continuing the war it is necessary to train and equip immediately a million men, adopt national prohibition and "stamp our profession of democracy with the seal of sincerity by enfranchising the intelligence, the purity and the patriotism of women." It is certain that selective draft will pass, as supporters of the voluntary system are weakening.

LEGISLATURE TO ADJOURN MONDAY

DAY AND NIGHT SESSIONS WILL BE REQUIRED TO COMPLETE UNFINISHED BUSINESS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—Although the legislature was supposed to have adjourned officially at noon to-day, leaders stated that there would be no adjournment until Monday. Clocks in both houses were stopped at noon to-day. Day and night sessions will be held in order to finish business. Governor Stephens issued a proclamation to-day declaring Monday as raisin day and asking all to participate in the celebration of the day.

ALLIES' SHIPPING PROBLEM SOLVED

BALFOUR WIRES ENGLAND THAT FIRST PHASE OF WAR CONFERENCE IS DISPOSED OF

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Balfour has cabled England that the shipping problem has been solved for the Allies at the present conference. Matters were put up to President Wilson for decision as to the order in which they should be considered. He declared that shipping was the paramount thing to be considered. Food and munitions will be equally strong among the exports in the early part of the war.

CHINA WILL JOIN ALLIES

WAITING AGREEMENT OF JAPAN TO CERTAIN CONDITIONS BEFORE DECLARING STATE OF WAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TOKIO, April 27.—It seems that it cannot be long before China joins the Allies in a state of war. The declaration is only awaiting the acceptance by Japan of certain conditions that have been accepted by the other Allies.

RUSSIA REMAINS IN WAR

LOYALTY TO HER ALLIES GROWS STRONGER AS GERMAN SEEMS A SEPARATE PEACE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

COPENHAGEN, April 27.—Diplomatic advices from Russia state that Russia's loyalty to the Allies has been strengthened as a result of Germany's efforts to effect a separate peace.

GREATER EFFICIENCY FOR AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The agricultural department plans to ask congress to place the department on a war basis. It is hoped by this means to increase the wheat crop, lower the price of bread and otherwise assist in the production and conservation of food.

ASKS APPROPRIATION FOR FOOD RELIEF

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Secretary of Commerce Redfield to-day asked Congress to appropriate $50,000 to relieve the food situation by a more general use of fish.

AT STATE CAPITAL

FORTY SECOND CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE WILL ADJOURN TODAY OR TOMORROW

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—After a sixty-six day grind the Forty-Second California legislature is expected to adjourn today or tomorrow sine die. This legislature will go down in history as one of little consecutive work. The measures of real importance passed by the two branches could almost be counted on ten fingers. Two of the most important—land colonization and social insurance—were holdovers from the 1615 session.

Less than one-fifth of the bills introduced will go on the statute books. Close to 1800 proposed laws never reached the floor of either house.

There was only one, real, genuine fight during the whole session—one that stirred the state from one end to another and that was brought on by the Rominger anti-saloon, anti-ardent liquor bill. After a spectacular fight in the senate, the bill was passed by that branch only to be beaten by the assembly in a fight equally as spectacular. Practically nothing was done by the legislature in the way of liquor regulation, though at the outset booze legislation occupied the main spotlight.

Labor scored over capital through the defeat of the compulsory mediation bill and the carrying of the anti-injunction bill. The latter gives organized labor the right to conduct peaceful strikes, boycotts and picketing without danger of interference through a court injunction. The bill was fought bitterly by the San Francisco chamber of commerce.

Brisk attacks on the fish and game commission marked the opening weeks of the session but this fight soon ended with the commission all to the good. An attack on the state reclamation board made more headway.

Absence of constructive work was due, in a measure, to the retrenchment policy announced right off the bat by Governor Stephens, and occasioned by the war. It requires money to "do things" and there were comparatively few appropriations. More than a million dollars that otherwise could have been voted for extensions of state institutions and other purposes for development of the state was appropriated for a state council of defense and a state defense guard—military bodies.

One of the biggest appropriations—$250,000—was voted to carry out a land colonization plan, a proposition stamped by President Breed of the senate as one of the biggest things before the session.

Regulation of the kelp harvesting industry is another big step taken by the legislature—a bigger step than most of the law-makers realized when they voted for the bill. The vast kelp beds in the vicinity of San Diego yield valuable chemicals and the bill passed by the legislature declares state ownership of the industry. Regulation and conservation of the kelp is to be carried out upon recommendations of the Scripps Institute for Biological Research.

Clyde L. Seavey, former chairman of the state tax commission, considers of great importance the "five per cent tax limit bill." Under this measure a city or county cannot raise by taxation in any one year an aggregate amount that would represent an increase of more than five per cent over the preceding year. This law will have a tendency to check the soaring of taxes, Seavey says, which, of course, will be a big thing for the people.

On the whole the session was tiresome, unduly prolonged and of comparatively little value. However, many figure that it was the more useful through the very fact that it didn't accomplish much in the way of law-making. This is the view of those who believe the statute books already are swimming with useless laws.

I. O. O. F. ANNIVERSARY

MEMBERS OF REBEKAHS AND ODD FELLOWS LODGES IN JOINT CELEBRATION

Officers and members of Carnation Rebekah Lodge and Glendale Lodge, I. O. O. F., met at their hall, corner Third St. and Isabel Thursday evening for a joint celebration of the 98th anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in America.

After a brief business session, lodge was closed and all adjourned to the banquet hall where tables were arranged for fifty people and where an oyster supper was served and thoroughly enjoyed. Following the feast, the Rebekahs contributed their part to the evening's enjoyment and presented a well arranged and well prepared program. Dr. H. C. Smith gave a brief but interesting history of Odd Fellowship telling how the first lodge was organized in this country at Baltimore, Md., April 26, 1819, by Thomas Wilkey.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick rendered a beautiful piano solo and Miss Addison accompanied by Mrs. Starkey sang very sweetly. Rev. C. R. Norton, long a loyal Odd Fellow gave an interesting address. Mrs. J. D. Moore's vocal solo was greatly appreciated by the audience. The program closed with a violin solo by Elwood Ingledue who is very proficient on that instrument.

Following the program, games and dancing and a good social time were enjoyed by all present.

CASA VERDUGO CELEBRATES

Arrangements for the rousing celebration to be given tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the Casa Verdugo Home Guards, have been completed.

The demonstration will occur in the Central Ave. School building—that is that part of the entertainment devoted to the musical and literary features. All of the committees have worked zealously to make the affair a historical event in the life of this part of the valley and the entire organization is enthusiastic in preparing for it.

The programme is in charge of Hon. Alex. Mitchell, assisted by Mesdames Alfred F. Priest, L. L. Elliott, A. F. Newlin and H. W. Peterson. Good speakers representing Glendale as well as Casa Verdugo have promised to be present, likewise a large number of the city officials of Glendale and members of the different lodges.

The services of one of the best bands in the city have been secured, which, with the vocal numbers on the programme will form a musical treat which cannot fail to please all who attend.

Speeches will be made by Hon. Alex. Mitchell, Major Mattison B. Jones, Frank Balthis Jr., and Capt. W. B. Kelley.

Scout Master Guthrie will present his boy scouts fifty in number in their flag drill.

The program will close with the flag raising and the work of the firing squad, the latter feature will be staged at the corner of Stocker and Central avenue.

The organization issues a special invitation to the residents of Glendale, Eagle Rock, Tropic and Burbank to be present.

MR. CATHERWOOD'S LAST NIGHT

The many friends of Evangelist Catherwood who have heard his stirring messages the past two weeks will all want to be present in the Baptist church to-night when he delivers his final message in this series. Despite the inclement weather, there was a fine audience to greet him last night, when he delivered one of the strongest sermons yet given on "What we see when we look in the mirror." When he asked those who had accepted Christ in the last five years to join him at the front, it was interesting to note what a large number of those coming forward had been led to a decision in the present meetings, which have proved an eminent success. Not only have Christian people been revived spiritually, but a number have been inspired to take an open stand for Christ. Several of these have already been baptized and a number of others await the ordinance, which will again be administered next Sunday evening. It is gratifying also that amongst the new converts are several heads of families. Mr. Catherwood will leave with the deep gratitude of the church and the good will of the entire community, to which he has ministered with such effectiveness. The meetings close next Sunday evening, special messages being delivered by the pastor, appropriate for the occasion. The music this evening and Sunday, both instrumental and vocal, will be a special feature. Everybody invited.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1917

PROF. W. H. HEAD DELIGHTS AUDIENCE AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Contributed
A generous audience greeted the appearance of Prof. W. H. Head, specialist in the impersonation of the characters immortalized in the dialect poems of James Whitcomb Riley, whom Prof. Head terms "the greatest American poet," and whose decease occurred only last year. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, and the speaker, as well as Dr. H. H. Dowling, Secretary of the Los Angeles Chautauqua association, who was on the program for a talk in the first assembly of the Chautauqua, next August 1 to 29, were both introduced by Mrs. N. C. Kelley, Chairman of the Committee on Education.

Among those present last Tuesday evening, remarks were exchanged relative to the difference in the size of the average movie turn out and the attendance at the high class offering of the master in elocution, the character of whose subject is known without doubt in advance to be wholesome, instructive and enjoyable to both young and old.

Some of the best elements of the community abstain from the film fads, for various reasons, principally referring to the children, but what good reason can be given by many of the leaders in the religious, literary and artistic circles of our city, for failures frequently to patronize to the extent of crowded houses entertainments at a small, or no, admission, that are assuredly of the highest educational value, and of the cleanest intellectual and moral character, such as the Riley Readings?

Prof. Head's equipment for his performance, through his personal acquaintance with the poet, and attendance upon Riley's own public interpretations of his works as well as his own endowments, was at once acknowledged by his very appreciative audience, including the glowing enthusiasm of the youngsters in the front seats.

Among the well known favorites recited, were the following:
"Dot Leedie Boy of Mine."
"Little Orphan Annie."
"The Raggedy Man."
"Knee Deep in June."
"An Old Worn Out Song."
"Out to Old Aunt Mary's."
"An Old Sweetheart of Mine."

Concluding with the convulsing story of "Freddy and the Bear." Prof. Head also briefly outlined the Chautauqua movement, giving way to Dr. Dowling, who stated somewhat in detail the aims of the Los Angeles Chautauqua association, that has leased the Billy Sunday Tabernacle for the ninth of August this year.

To those who are familiar with the parent Chautauqua from its inception and have attended the assemblies in Lake Chautauqua, N. Y., during the days of its great founder Dr. (later Bishop) John H. Vincent with solid financial backing of Lewis Miller (father-in-law of Thos. A. Edison) the great "Backeye" farm machinery manufacturer of Akron, Ohio, and who also recalls that from that Chautauqua platform was taken Dr. Wm. R. Hacker, by John D. Rockefeller to be made President of the University of Chicago; and later Dr. George A. Vincent, (then an understudy of his father, Bishop Vincent), to assume the presidency (last year) of the General Education Board of the Rockefeller Foundation, is given the privilege of pointing out, that the great nation wide Chautauqua idea is "known by its fruits," and is most worthy of being supported to the limit, which includes the Los Angeles Chautauqua Association, and its summer assembly.

ASKS NATIONAL PROHIBITION

The following communication was presented to the Board of Trustees at their meeting Thursday evening by City Attorney W. E. Evans:
Honorable Board of Trustees,
City of Glendale.

Gentlemen: According to the reports emanating from the seat of our national government, there is great apprehension of an impending shortage of food stuffs in the United States, brought about by the demand now being made, and to be made in the future, on our country to furnish, not only our own army and people, but those of other countries with the necessities of life during this great world conflict. Notwithstanding this urgent demand for food conservation, a material proportion of the most staple products are being manufactured into alcoholic liquors for which there is neither demand or necessity. In view of these conditions,

SPECIAL

We wish to announce that we have just received another consignment of ladies' trimmed hats and fine MILANS, which we are selling at prices that will surely appeal to you.

We also have a fine assortment of girls' and children's hats of the latest designs and make-up.

We would be pleased to have our old customers and many new ones come in and see our up-to-the-minute stock of millinery.

NO TROUBLE TO SHOW GOODS

Anna L. Smith,
MILLINER

1024 West Broadway

I suggest that a memorial be sent by your Board to the President and our representatives in both houses of the National Congress requesting that such legislation be enacted as will absolutely prohibit the manufacture of any food products into alcoholic drinks or beverages until peace is declared and until this country is prepared to supply all to whom she is obligated to furnish such necessities of life.

Most respectfully submitted,
W. E. EVANS,
City Attorney.

The Board endorsed the recommendation of Mr. Evans and the following resolution was passed.

Whereas, there is a great necessity for conservation and production of food supplies in the United States in order that the demands of our army and people and those of other countries may be adequately supplied during the present war, and

Whereas, a great amount of our most staple food products is being unnecessarily converted into alcoholic drinks and beverages for which there is not actual demand or necessity.

Therefore Be It Resolved by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale that the President of the United States and Congress be requested to enact such legislation as will, during the continuation of the present war, prohibit the manufacture of food products into alcoholic liquors.

Woman Says Tea Is Aid to Longevity

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—Mrs. Marian Sparks Banister celebrated her one hundredth birthday the other day.

She attributes her longevity to the fact that she has subsisted upon a simple diet and has been cheerful and unworried in the face of adversity.

She is an inveterate tea drinker.

Only the other day a Glendale lady was ordered by her physician to drink tea to help regain her health.

Mrs. Edna Sawyer and little daughter Edna have moved here from Kansas City, Mo., and will occupy their own home at 1615 Oak street.

Many inquiries on the part of schoolmates when Miss Helen Ingledue failed to report at High School yesterday elicited the fact that she is confined to her home with an attack of the mumps.

Mrs. Manford, who has been living for several years at 1618 Colorado street, has gone with her grandsons, Robert and Jack Copeland, to Pomona to live.

H. W. Wood, who for several years has conducted a very successful poultry ranch at 1641 W. 7th, has disposed of all his holdings here and will move in a few weeks to Atascadero, near Paso Robles.

First Church of Christ, Scientist of Glendale, is planning for a lecture to be given Sunday evening in the church edifice, corner Second St. and Maryland Ave. by Charles I. Ohrenstein, C. S. B. of Syracuse, N. Y., member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church.

Among the Glendale boys who have recently responded to the call to arms, and perhaps the youngest one to do so is Neal Wells, sixteen and a half years old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wells, 328 S. Maryland avenue. Neal has enlisted in the regular army for a term of seven years and is now in training at Fort McDowell on Angel Island. His last letter to his parents states that he will leave the training camp very shortly but doesn't know where he will be assigned.

F. H. SCHOOL TRUSTEES SUPPORT CHILDREN'S GARDEN CAMPAIGN

At a meeting of the School Trustees held yesterday a very generous offer made by Mr. Geo. Ganahal was accepted. Mr. Ganahal offers to plow at his own expense 100 vacant lots to be used by school children under supervision. This offer applies to all High School and grammar school children. The school trustees authorized Mrs. Nanno Woods, President of the Glendale Garden Society to create an organization to be known as "The Soldiers of the Soil." All school children desiring to take advantage of Mr. Ganahal's offer will be required to enlist as Soldiers of the Soil. Applications for the plowing of lots should be made to the school principals who will forward the application to headquarters. Or applications may be made directly to Mrs. Nanno Woods. Mr. Richardson White, supervising principal has arranged with Mrs. Woods to give a stereopticon talk on Soldiers of the Soil to the pupils of the third street school on Monday afternoon at 2:15. Recruiting forms for Soldiers of the Soil can be obtained at that time. Mr. White is also making arrangements to invite all school children of Glendale and Tropic who are interested in this movement to attend a stereopticon lecture given by Mrs. Woods on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the third street school. Mr. White will be a general supervisor of the Soldiers of the Soil and Mrs. Woods will be manager assisted by Mr. Geo. Ganahal.

The Uruguyan women are said to be more beautiful even than the women of Chile. They are more democratic, more inclined to the new order of things than the women in most Latin American countries.

BIG UNION TENT MEETINGS

The Methodist and Presbyterian churches of Tropic are uniting in a three weeks Evangelistic Campaign. A big tent has been erected at the corner of Brand Blvd. and Tropic Ave., just across the street from the Tropic City Hall.

The meetings are to begin next Sunday evening, April 29. They will continue for three weeks. Services will be held every evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Clarke and Woods are to be the evangelists. These young men are favorably known all over Southern California. They have conducted successful campaigns in Pasadena, Glendora, Fillmore, Long Beach, Los Angeles and many other cities.

Evangelist L. LeRoi Clarke was on the stage before his conversion. He is a musician of great versatility, playing the cornet, guitar, banjo, piano, etc. He has besides a good bass voice. He is an entertaining, interesting and forceful speaker. He uses his native dramatic talent with telling effect in his addresses. He is not afraid of the world, the flesh, or the devil, and hits sin straight from the shoulder at every opportunity.

Singer E. Martindale Woods is the son of Rev. Charles Coke Woods, for some time one of the leading pastors of the Southern California Methodist Episcopal conference, and also an author of some note. He has a fine dramatic tenor voice. He does solo work and will organize and lead a great chorus choir.

All those who enjoy singing, both in Tropic and Glendale, whether affiliated with any church or not, are invited to join this choir. The first practise will be Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the tent. Those who play instruments are also invited to be present and have a part in the orchestra which is to be organized.

Everybody come to these meetings, good singing, good speaking, a good and profitable time for everyone.

American People Waste

more in one day than would suffice to feed the entire French nation one month. We are learning better now, though, and will continue to learn for several years.

Let your grocer help you in this laudable effort. For instance, why pay 10c for 10 oz. of macaroni when you can buy 16 oz. of the very best ready cut for 10c or 48 oz. for 25c. And why pay 40c for a pound can of coffee when the can itself costs the wholesaler 6c? You can buy as good a coffee in bulk for 35c and have it ground while you wait.

You can keep down expenses greatly by using some or all of the following: Baked Beans, 10c, 15c, 20c a can. Choice Stringless Beans at 15c. Kidney Beans, same price. Big cans Hominy, 15c. Salmon and tuna at 15c and 25c. Fancy prunes are still 15c a pound, 2 for 25c. Cluster raisins, 10c a pound. Seeded and seedless raisins, 10c a package. Evaporated apples, 10c a pound (they cost wholesale 11 1/2 c a pound now). Green peas are but 5c a pound. Carrots, turnips, lettuce, beets, asparagus, new potatoes, usual prices for this time of year.

Cereals that we have not advanced prices on: Post Toasties, Grape Nuts, Vitos, Shredded Wheat, Puffed Wheat, Puffed Rice, Triscuit, Bran Flakes, Krumbles, Roman Meal, Uncle Sam, Eatmore, H. O., Purity Oats, Carnation Oats, Carnation Wheat, Sherry Steam Cooked Oats. Also Noodles, Macaroni, Spaghetti.

FEED IS CASH

The mills are insisting on cash for grain and other poultry feed, so we are compelled to demand cash in advance for sack and 1/2 sack lots of feed. Use judgment in buying and don't get scared. All will be well.

preparation for war that was having a new initiation within our little Chamber of Commerce Hall, decorated as a bride, it is hoped; not as a victim. But who knows what the veiled future hides in the hand held behind her.

To the sober-minded, what but a preparation for war was the inner meaning of that first salute to The Flag, that first lecture, that first war song ever sung, in Glendale's Chamber of Commerce; destined in a larger way, when the fates decree, to be a forum in which the great orators, perhaps of many lands, will voice the truth as they understand it, in support of our free institutions; and in furtherance of undertakings for Glendale weal. The Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, as host of the occasion said in substance:

"For me to introduce Mrs. Nanno Woods to a Glendale audience, would surely be a work of super-errogation."

During seven years she has been known to you, not only as the moving spirit in the useful, and successful Glendale Garden Society; but as prime mover, and persistent promoter of other good things for Glendale's benefit.

That her trail to her present success led through rough places, is but part of the drill Providence enforces upon His pioneers to prove if they are worthy the trust confided to them.

In every age are prophets, who see the shadows of coming events before the rest of us do more than dream.

Their warnings are generally unheeded, till as now, when the whole country, from ocean to ocean; from Old Mexico to Alaska, is thrilled with the President's call, not only for millions of men for war, but new millions of tons of food to feed those men, and millions of others not our own.

In such "parlous times" do true prophets see the deeper meaning of their own prophecies; meanings of greater need than they themselves understood. Mrs. Nanno Woods is one of those prophets, and she, whom you all know, has the honor of being the first public-spirited Citizen to deliver a lecture, both a prophecy and a fulfillment of prophecy, in the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Woods' simply told, straightforward talk on vacant lot, backyard and small garden cultivation, illustrated with beautiful, appropriate and convincing stereopticon pictures, was absolute demonstration of the wisdom, and the feasibility of literally obeying the President's call to the youths and maidens, as well as to the men and women of America, to rise to the necessity and raise in small ways, or in large ways, all the food that it is possible to make every square rod of American soil produce. Many tyros, after one or two uninformal, spazmodic, un-conditioned efforts, still insist that "Small gardening does not pay." Mrs. Woods by voiced and pictured statistics, proved that it does pay, if the rules of the game are strictly complied with. Her pictures, with facts, names and places, put it within the power of any one interested to enquire for themselves, and prove that it does pay.

Woodrow Wilson is too wise a leader to call upon American youth, maturity and old age, to do something that will not pay—to attempt anything, even for the public good, unless he knows it can be done, if rightly done.

Yesterday a public-spirited citizen of Glendale perfected arrangements by which he personally pays for the proper ploughing of at least one hundred vacant lots in Glendale, for pupils of our schools who will cultivate them, or for others selected. His proposition provided that the work on said hundred ploughed lots shall be superintended by some one qualified, who can and will give the time to see that it is rightly done; not an hour or two this week, as much or more next week; but all the time—every day, till the crops are planted, cultivated, mattered and harvested.

The funds at the disposal of the city trustees do not warrant them in paying some one to do such important, continuous work. In that emergency, the matter was referred to the Garden society, and the vexed problem solved by Mrs. Nanno Woods agreeing to undertake that onerous management, minus material compensation. Without stenographic notes, it would be impossible to do justice to that able lecture of Mrs. Woods. But those who missed hearing it last night, because of rain, or multitudinous prior engagements, may have another opportunity to hear it repeated, with important additions, this evening at the Congregational church where, also, it is free to the public.

At the close of her lecture last night, Mrs. Woods announced that the song, "Plant, Plant, Plant," which they were about to sing, was written by the Secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce. She had copies printed, which were distributed among the audience who joined in the chorus to the well-known old Civil War song tune, "Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching."

TRUSTEE'S MEETING

and on motion of Trustee Muhleman, permission was granted.

He reported that applications had been received for the plowing by the city of forty vacant lots, and that seeds to the value of $21.75 had been furnished to applicants.

The City Engineer presented a map of Tract No. 2716, accompanied by a resolution.

On motion, "A resolution approving Map of Tract No. 2716 and accepting on behalf of the public the avenues, streets, alleys, and public places shown thereon," was taken up for reading." On motion of Trustee Grist, the same upon being read was adopted.

The Manager of the Public Service Department reported that J. Herbert Smith desired to rent the old substation in the alley east of Brand Boulevard between Third Street and Broadway for the sum of $5.00 per month. On motion of Trustee Grist, the lease was approved, and the Chairman of the Board and the City Clerk authorized to sign the same.

The Manager of the Public Service Department reported that he received a letter from Miss Winifred Marr in reference to the water service in Verdugo Canon, and on motion of Trustee Muhleman, the matter was referred to the Manager of the Public Service Department, the City Attorney and the Chairman of the Public Works Committee.

The City Attorney called attention of the Board to the flag on the library building, and on motion of Trustee Jackson, this matter was referred to the Finance Committee with power to act.

The City Manager reported that the referees in the opening and widening of Sycamore Canon have practically completed their report, which will be filed within a few days.

The City Attorney also presented a written communication, which was ordered read calling attention to the necessity for the conservation of food products in the United States and suggesting that the Board send a memorial to the President and our representatives in Washington, requesting that legislation be enacted, such as will prohibit the manufacture of food products into alcoholic drinks or beverages until peace is declared. In reference to this matter a resolution was ordered to be read, which upon being read was, on motion of Trustee Grist, adopted.

On motion of Trustee Grist, Ordinance No. 309, "An Ordinance amending Ordinance No. 284, entitled, "An Ordinance Amending No. 14, entitled "An Ordinance of the City of Glendale providing for the assessment and collection of City Taxes," was ordered to be taken up for third and final reading, and upon being read was on motion of Trustee Muhleman, adopted.

THE FIRST LECTURE, THE FIRST SALUTE TO THE FLAG, AND THE FIRST WAR SONG

(By Walt Le Noir Church)

In the new Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

Last night, Thursday, the 26th of April, 1917, will be marked with a white stone in the history of Glendale's re-incarnated Chamber of Commerce. The first of any good thing is notable, and to be remembered. The little hall was re-arranged, re-decorated, lighted and seated, so that it took on the guise and the spirit of a forum in miniature, foregrounding, only, the great audience chamber of the greater commercial and civic center that may, perhaps within a twelve-months, be fitted for the growing needs of growing Glendale.

The interested audience which the rain could not keep away, experienced a double thrill, one within; the other outside the beautifully decorated front windows.

Just before the notable entertainment began within, the steady stream of marching men turned all ears and many eyes to the front door, out of which rushed several enthusiastic admirers of our Home Guard, joyously cheered, as the long double line trod with rhythmic step down Broadway. Un-uniformed; unarmed, though they were, their silent, shadowy, but determined passing gave a stern hint of war, as a fact, not a theory, and added significance to the
